

Public Hearing – Proposed Zoning
Saturday December 5, 2009 10:00 am

Supervisor Brumagin began the meeting at 10:00 a.m. by introducing herself. The Town Clerk was asked to read the legal notice which was published in the Jamestown Post Journal.

Supervisor Brumagin then asked the Town Board members to introduce themselves: Dennis; Denis; and Scott Bensink.

The Supervisor explained the Board would not be answering questions today but would be taking all input from the audience. She did explain how the process has worked so far.

Those attending: Dan Norcross, Mary Norcross, Kris Gleason, Shirlee Pound, Joe Zimmerman, Jeff Horner, Jeff Richards, Joe Kelwaski, Jim Ellsworth, Peter Howard, Frank Pratt, Norm Pratt, Dave Calvert, Larry Gross, Don Kleckner, Helen Kleckner, Mary Prather, and Charles Miller. (18 property owners/residents)

She asked for anyone who wished to speak to come to the podium and state their name. She suggested the comments and questions be contained to 3 to 5 minutes.

The following persons addressed the Town Board with questions and suggestions:
Joe Kelwaski, Dan Norcross, Joe Zimmerman, Shirlee Pound, Dave Calvert, Jim Ellsworth, and Mary Prather.

Supervisor Brumagin stated that if anyone had suggestions or questions they could mail them to her, email them to her or drop them off at the Town Clerk's office.

It was asked what the process would be after this. She explained it would depend on the out come of the two (2) public hearings. The Town Board will look at the suggestions and review. If there are minor changes it will be handled by the Town Board. If there are major changes, it could go back to the local planning Board, the County Planning Board and then other public hearings.

With no further questions or discussion Supervisor Brumagin closed the Public Hearing closed at 10:50 a.m.
